

Vocabulary

Vocabulary

Study the vocabulary words and definitions below.

carbon dioxide (CO₂) a gas given off when burning takes place chemical change change in which a new substance is produced combustion the process of burning a substance composition the makeup of a substance physical change any change in the form or phase of matter; no new substances are formed pressure the force placed on an object substance any material or matter