

Using Sensory Language

Read each topic sentence. Think of what you might see, hear, feel, taste, touch and smell in each setting. Then finish each paragraph by adding three sentences to develop the topic sentence. Use sensory details based on the information provided.

There was a huge crowd at the stadium.

- A) _____.
- B) _____.
- C) _____.

Many sounds fill the air at dusk.

- A) _____.
- B) _____.
- C) _____.

My first day of school was exciting.

- A) _____.
- B) _____.
- C) _____.

