

COMMUNITY HELPERS

Community helpers are all around. They are people that can help me and you! Some help us stay healthy; others help fix things.

Community helpers are important. Look closely at these pictures and listen to the clues. See if you can guess which community helper you are looking at.

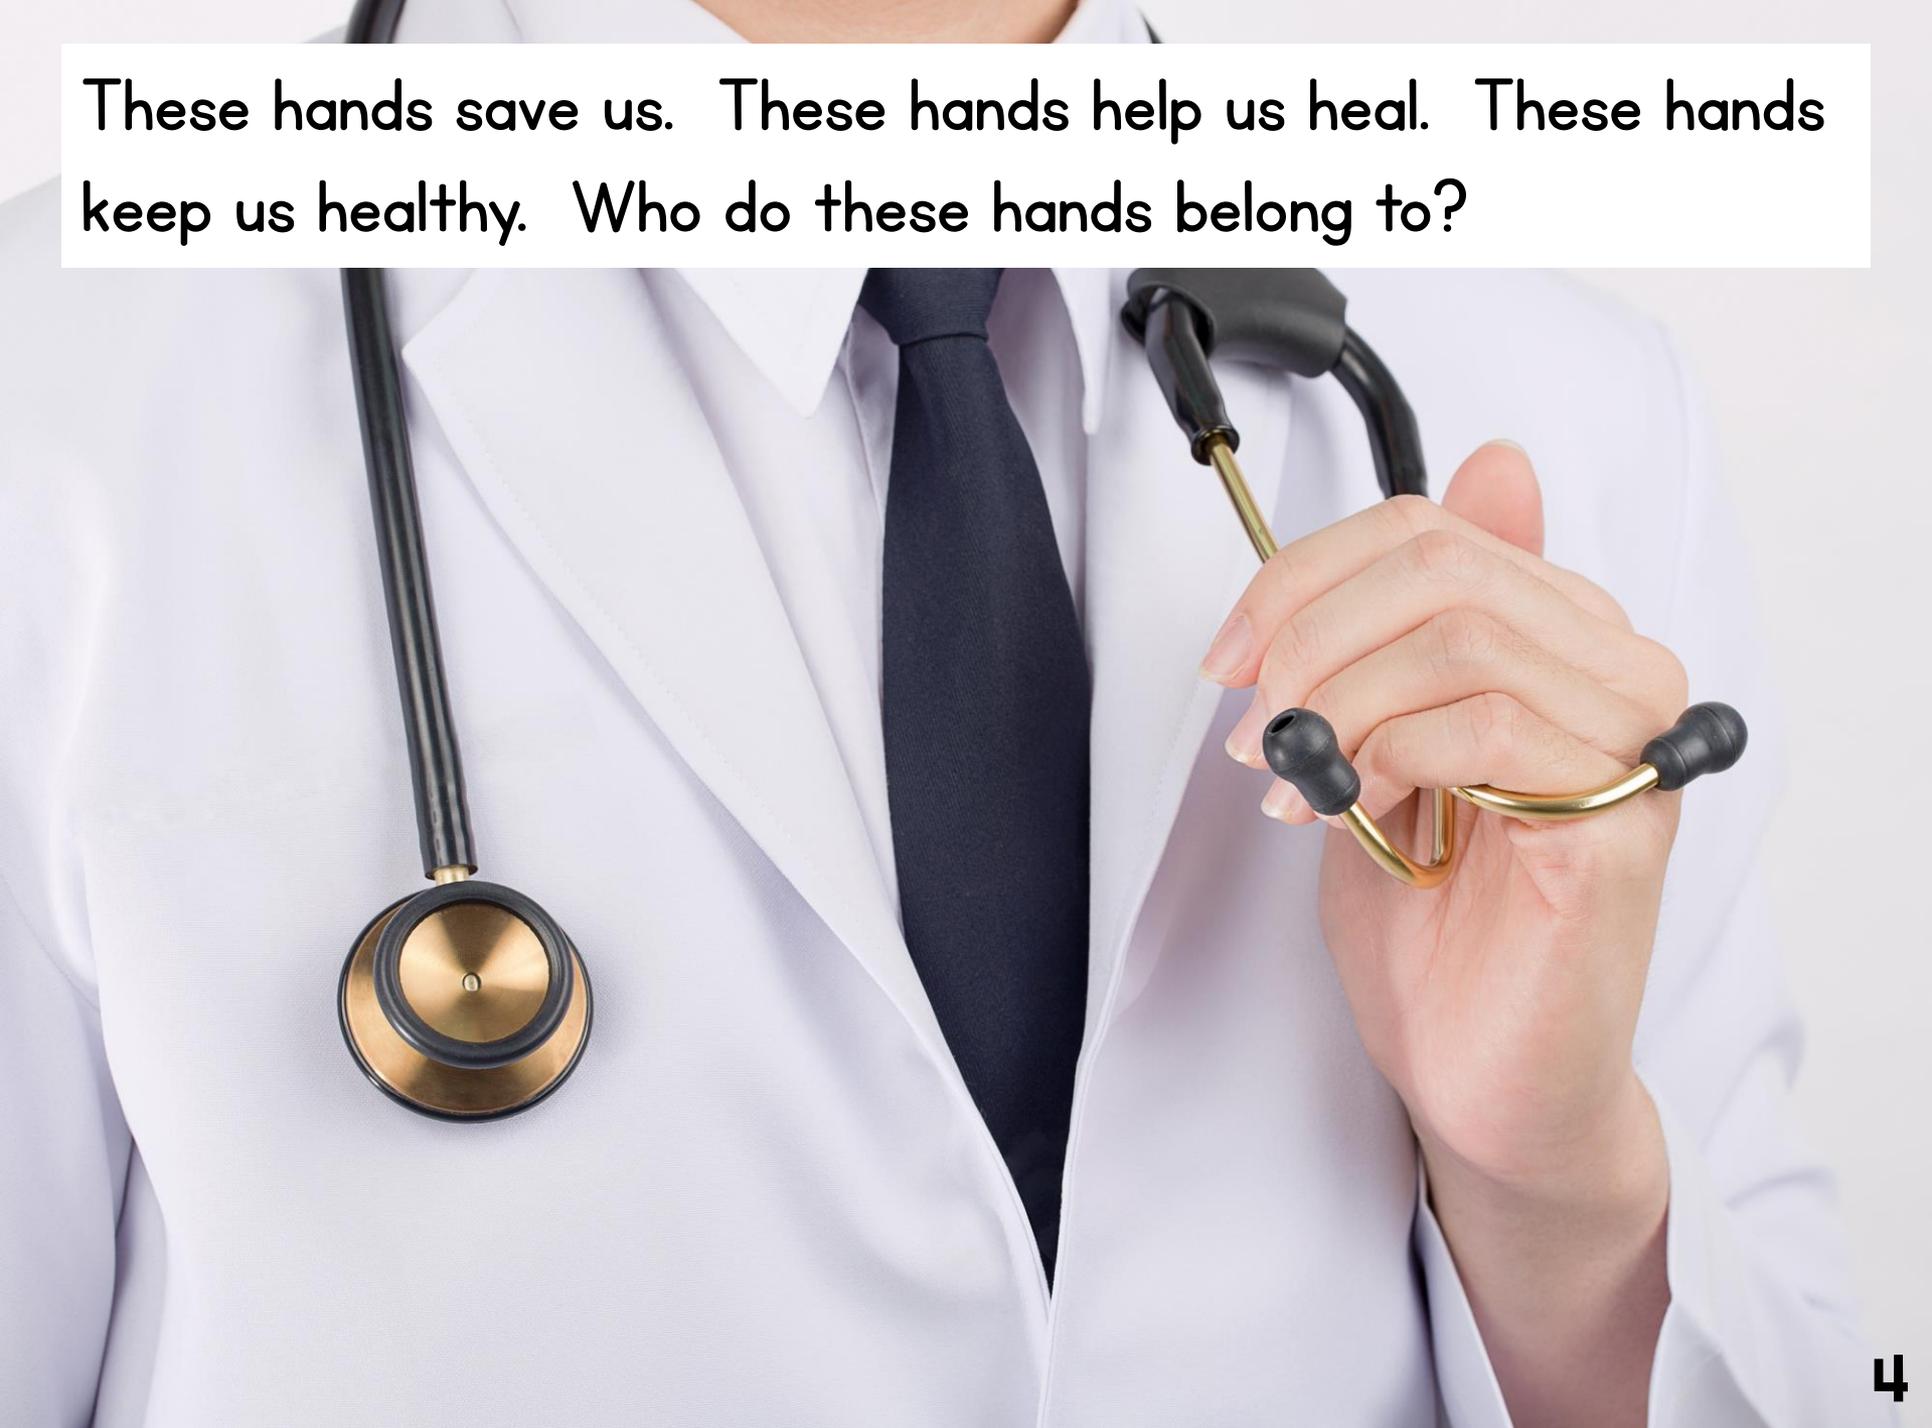

These hands protect us. These hands catch the bad guys. These hands enforce the law. Who do these hands belong to?

Those hands belong to a police officer! Have you seen a police officer in your community? They are always watching to make sure everyone obeys the law! They want to keep everyone safe!

These hands save us. These hands help us heal. These hands keep us healthy. Who do these hands belong to?

Those hands belong to a doctor. Have you seen a doctor in your community? They are always there, waiting to help us feel better.

They can fix a broken bone or help you stop coughing. They want to keep everyone healthy!

These hands heal our animals. These hands keep our animals healthy. Who do these hands belong to?

Those hands belong to a veterinarian. Have you seen a veterinarian in your community? They can help our animals feel better. They can even save your pet's life. They want to take care of animals! 7

These hands help us learn. These hands take care of us.
These hands inspire us. Who do these hands belong to?

Those hands belong to a teacher! Have you seen a teacher in your community? They help children learn. They teach math, reading, writing, science, and social studies. Teachers want everyone to feel smart and successful.

These hands protect us. These hands put out fires. These hands are brave. Who do these hands belong to?

Those hands belong to a firefighter! Have you seen a firefighter in your community? They keep us safe by putting out fires. They can also help when people crash their car.

Firefighters want to keep people safe.

These hands fix things. These hands keep our cars going.
These hands make things. Who do these hands belong to?

Those hands belong to a mechanic. Have you seen a mechanic in your community? They fix our cars and trucks. They make sure that we always have transportation. They want to help people fix their vehicles.