

Case 1: The Enigma of the Defaced Artwork

The museum owner, Karen, has just moved into their new building. In preparation for the museum opening, she requested the assistance of Frank, her husband, her assistant Ben, and June, the custodian.

After eating lunch, Karen walked around the room and discovered the newest painting had been defaced!

It's your job to answer the following questions using observation skills.

Observation Questions

1. What color was the painting that was damaged?
2. What was the substance that damaged the painting?
3. What drink did Ben order for lunch?
4. Who damaged the painting?